MARKETING SUPPORT

As a division of GSL Group, our in-house marketing team works closely with event organizers and promoters to create extraordinary events. Our marketing team has extensive experience in reaching targeted audiences, which is a critical factor in delivering a successful event in the region.

By collaborating with our in-house team, you will have access to our wide range of event marketing services:

Content Creation & Graphic Design

Our team of graphic designers are well versed in creating and adapting event collateral for localized needs. Our marketing team also includes specialists in web design and copywriting, who are experienced in creating engaging content for traditional and digital media platforms.

Website Creation & Management

Web presence is one of the most critical tools in the consumer journey. From event landing pages to websites, our team is capable of designing, creating and maintaining your event's web presence. We can directly ensure that your event's details and graphics are always updated, and more importantly, optimized to drive traffic and ticket sales.

PR Network & Press Release Distribution

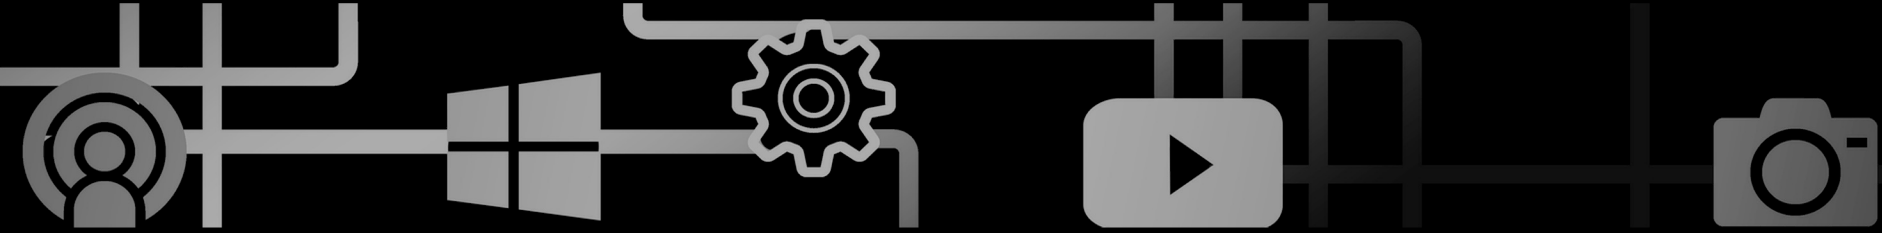

With our long history of delivering successful events in the region, we have an extensive media network that you can rely on. Our established list of media contacts and strong relationships will ensure your event has the best chance for publicity and exposure.

Print and Broadcast Relationships

Strategic media buys have contributed to the success of many events that have come through our arena. By leveraging our strong relationships with local print and broadcast media, you will have

Customer Database & Email Campaigns

We have amassed a significant database of customers over the hundreds of events that have taken place here. Combined with our ticketing arm, we have a database that has extensive reach in the region. From announcement and on-sale, to urgency and promo offers, our team can run email campaigns directly to our database.

Digital Advertising

Our marketing team has run many successful ad campaigns via Google Search, Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, display banner ad networks, app stores and more. Our targeted marketing expertise means we can tailor advertising to your event's audience and optimize for ticket sales.

Social Media

Nowadays, event awareness and word-of-mouth is commonly driven via social media. Our team has the expertise to manage announcements, contests and promotions to engage our local audiences on social media for your event.

Arena Assets

Our arena is fitted with opportunities to advertise your event on the ground. Poster boards, digital signage, windows, entrance/exit handouts, booths, or you name it! The in-arena opportunities are flexible and customizable to suit your needs.
